Re: United States v. Bergrin, Crim. No. 09-369 (DMC)

Dear Judge Cavanaugh:

Defendant Paul Bergrin has asked this Court to adjourn sentencing to August 26th. We disagree that an adjournment is necessary to allow Bergrin sufficient time to deliver to the Probation Office his rebuttal to the Government's objections to the draft PSR. Bergrin will have ample time—well more than the seven days afforded him in Fed. R. Crim. P. 32(g)—to lodge with this Court any objections he has to the Final PSR. That said, we do not oppose an adjournment, but respectfully request that this Court schedule sentencing for August 28th or 29th given extant vacation plans.

We thank the Court for its consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

PAUL J. FISHMAN
United States Attorney
