

December 4, 2003

Call 804,225 15:45:40. HC calling PB.

HC: Yo, What's up Paul?

PB: Hey Hak, I'm real disappointed man.

HC: What happened?

PB: I argued my heart, you know.

HC: He denied him. (Proves we always believed there was a chance of bail).

PB: What's that?

HC: He denied him his bail.

PB: Yeah, I really thought we had a shot at it. You know I argued for a long time.

HC: Yeah.

PB: Yeah.

HC: How the case is?

PB: It's a fucken rough case. The case involves 6 sales as well as conspiracy.

HC: Conspiracy to do what?

PB: Conspiracy to. They're alleging conspiracy to distribute more than 50 grams of crack cocaine.

HC: Are there wiretaps or surveillance?

PB: There no wiretaps it's all surveillance.

HC: How bad is that?

PB: It all carries the same penalty. But as far as proving it. I don't know until I get the surveillance reports.

HC: So, oh you really don't know what it is.

PB: Right.

HC: Until you get the discovery you really don't know what's going on with the case.

PB: Um, not really. Not at this point. It's really to early.

HC: Okay. When do you go back to Court?

PB: December 11, for Arraignment on the Indictment.

HC: Then you'll get the papers then, right.

PB: yes.

HC: Yes.

PB: Okay, I'll talk to you. I'll talk to you later.

Okay: Bye, buddy, Bye.

December 4, 2003, Call 118,483, 16:47:29.

HC: Talk in background. Irrelevant.

PB: Hak, let me call you back in 20 minutes.

HC: Okay.

PB: Alright.
